

Colour a Green Woodpecker.

The green woodpecker is one of the most easily recognised birds found feeding among the ant hills in acid grassland. Their bright colours and loud laughing call ('yaffle') make them a real favourite for people to spot.

